Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Acting District Director, Miami, Florida, who certified his decision to the Administrative Appeals Office for review. The acting district director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The acting district director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II), and 212(a)(2)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(II), and § 1182(a)(2)(C). The acting district director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime, or

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. § 802).

(C) Any alien who the consular officer or immigration officer knows or has reason to believe is or has been an illicit trafficker in any such controlled substance or is or has been a knowing assister, abettor, conspirator, or colluder with others in the illicit trafficking in any such controlled substance, is inadmissible.

The record reflects that on November 19, 1999, in the Circuit Court, Eleventh Judicial Circuit, Dade County, Florida, Case No. [REDACTED] the applicant was indicted for Count 1, trafficking in cocaine; Count 2, trafficking in cocaine; Count 3, trafficking in cocaine; Count 4, conspiracy to traffic in cocaine; and Count 5, trafficking in cocaine. On February 8, 2002, the applicant entered a plea of guilty as to Count 3, and he was adjudged guilty of Count 3. He was sentenced to imprisonment for a term of 4 years, and ordered to pay the sum of $471 in fines and costs. The final disposition as to Counts 1, 2, 4, and 5 is not reflected in the record.

Participation in illicit drug trafficking is a crime involving moral turpitude where knowledge or intent is an element of the offense. Matter of Khourn, 21 I&N Dec. 1041, 1047 (BIA 1997). The applicant is, therefore, inadmissible to the United States, pursuant to sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act, based on his conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude.

The applicant is also inadmissible to the United States, pursuant to sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) and 212(a)(2)(C) of the Act, based on his conviction of trafficking in cocaine. There is no waiver available to an alien found inadmissible under these sections except for a single offense of simple possession of thirty grams or less of marijuana. The applicant does not qualify under this exception.

The applicant is ineligible for adjustment of status to permanent residence, pursuant to section 1 of the Act of November 2, 1966. The decision of the acting district director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The acting district director's decision is affirmed.
